

Ross Genealogy Client Questionnaire

Please don't feel in any way inhibited if you can only answer a few of the questions that follow! Some research commissions require this level of information; others can be progressed on the basis of just the name, date and place. Try us!

The sole intention of this questionnaire is to ensure as far as possible that Ross Genealogy has as much information as possible on which to base a response to your query.

If you have some of the information available in other formats it is perfectly acceptable to append the Word or PDF files, or trees involved, in an e-mail to Ross Genealogy at david.webster@rossgenealogy.co.uk.
